division, 40 ACRES OF LAND, more or less, with an eight-room dwelling thereon.

This property lies just north of Richmond, between Ginter Park and Righland Park, and adjoining Brookland Park, and is only two blocks from present trolley line, with ten minutes' schedule to First and Broad Streets, with the prospect of a car line through the property within the next six months.

IT HAS A FRONTAGE OF ABOUT TWELVE HUNDRED (1,200) FEET ON NORTH AVENUE, and being adjacent to Brookland Park, the present streets could be extended through the property to great advantage and at small cost, as the whole property to great advantage and at small cost, as the whole property in high and level, and hardly any grading would be necessary. The present sewerage system extends to this property.
